

He is Right.

Harry Summers, of the Elizabeth-town News, says—and he is right when he says it—that the absurdity of holding primary elections a year or more in advance of the regular election has been demonstrated in Scott county, where the recent nominee for Circuit Clerk is dead, and the candidate for County Attorney is not expected to recover. It will be necessary to hold another primary election in Scott county. The same thing is liable to occur in several other counties and the early primary ought to be stopped.

Christmas Stamps in Demand.

The Christmas stamps are meeting with heavy sales throughout the State. Remember, the sale of these stamps is for the good of humanity, they are sold to help the work against tuberculosis in this city and in the entire State. It is expected that a million of them will be used. There should not be a package or letter sent this Christmas without one of these beautiful stamps on it. They are on sale at the jewelry stores and all other places in Paris where the shoppers mostly visit.

Stable Hand in Luck.

Bert Reeves, formerly of Flemingsburg, Ky., was Wednesday handed a check for $15,000 and a deed for 360 acres of land valued at $50,000 while he was washing a buggy in a livery stable at Bloomington, Ill., where he had worked for some time on account of poverty.

Nelson Fant, President of the First National Bank, of Flemingsburg, walked in upon him and handed over the money and the deed. Reeves said: "Twenty-seven years ago I left my home. We lived at Flemingsburg, the county seat of Fleming county, Ky. I was 18 years of age at the time and was one of eight children and all of them but one are still living. My twin sister, Ethel C. Reeves, died a short time ago. She left me the $15,000 and the farm."

Changes That Occur.

The Rev. Dr. J. O. Reavis, of Nashville, Tenn., who will be here Sunday to take part in the installation exercises at the Second Presbyterian church, when Dr. Shive will be installed as the new pastor, united with the church seventeen years ago under the preaching of Dr. Shive at Perry, Mo.

Dr. Shive was taking a vacation and visiting his brother, who is also a minister, and was preaching for him on a Sunday evening. An invitation was extended after the sermon and three young ladies and one young man came forward, the latter being James O. Reavis.

Dr. Shive met the young man a short time after this and he was thinking of studying medicine, and the two talked of the ministry. The next heard of Reavis by the Doctor was that he was a Presbyterian preacher. He is now Secretary of Foreign Missions of the Southern General Assembly, and one
